

Every Veteran Has a Story

WHAT'S YOURS?

VOICES OF VETERANS is a writers group at no cost to you, open to all military veterans. It is a community of veterans for veterans designed to provide a forum to learn the art of storytelling. Through discussion, writing exercises and study of the methods and writing style of other veteran authors, we assist each other to tell our stories. There is no time like the present to preserve your memories, share your experiences or just get them out of your head and on paper. Writing is part of the mission. All participants will receive a copy of Andrew Carroll's Operation Homecoming.

PARTICIPANTS WILL BE ELIGIBLE TO HAVE THEIR WORK PUBLISHED IN THE VOICES OF VETERANS LITERARY MAGAZINE AT THE COMPLETION OF THE PROJECT.

Second and Fourth Thursday each Month
